Poverty Bill Announced by Goldwater

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—A $625-million anti-poverty bill pointed toward a head-on clash in the Senate today between the Johnson administration and Sen. Barry Goldwater, the Republican presidential nominee.

The many-sided measure, denounced by Goldwater as designed chiefly to get votes in this year's election, is being pushed by President Johnson as part of his declared war on poverty.

As Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana called the bill up for action in the Senate, the House Rules Committee planned to resume hearings on a companion measure.

Administration leaders were confident the committee would clear the bill for action by the House, but several days of hearings were in prospect. Once the bill reaches the House floor, it will face stiff GOP opposition.

Among other things, the Senate bill would establish a job corps to help unemployed youths obtain new skills and work experience, finance most of the cost of community programs in such fields as health, welfare and vocational rehabilitation, set up a new Volunteers for America Corps to help operate various projects, provide loans and grants to low-income rural families, and assist migrant farm families.

Goldwater criticized the bill Tuesday as "an attempt to reap political rewards from the American people's natural and humane desire to improve the lot of our less fortunate citizens."

He was joined by Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex., in filing a minority report on the bill, which was approved by the Senate Labor Committee on July 7 by a 13-2 vote.

Goldwater and Tower termed the measure "a hodgepodge of programs treating only the results, not the causes of poverty." And they said that "whatever its professed purposes, it seems designed to achieve the single objective of securing votes."

In contrast, the majority report said the bill marks "a commitment by the Congress and the nation to dedicate themselves to the elimination of deprivation and dependency in this land."

New Ambush in Viet Nam Gets 136

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—A U.S. Army enlisted man and about 135 Vietnamese soldiers were reported missing today after a Communist ambush that killed at least 26 government troops and wounded possibly 100 others.

Reports from the confused battle scene indicated the missing may have been captured by the Communist Viet Cong. A U.S. Army captain was among the wounded brought to Saigon.

The Viet Cong's "U. Minh" Battalion—which has inflicted more than 1,000 government casualties since April—apparently threw its full strength Tuesday against a convoy on the way to relieve a besieged outpost, a U.S. spokesman said.

The attack in Chuong Thien Province, 140 miles southwest of Saigon, followed the usual pattern: an outpost, then ambush, then forces.

Communist gunners raked the battle-scarred government truck convoy manned by perhaps 500 men. Then they ambushed two companies of Vietnamese regulars racing to the rescue.

Government planes and helicopters strafed and rocketed the Communist forces "with probably good results," the Americans said.

HARLEM VIOLENCE CONTINUES—Steel helmeted riot police close in on a man and woman who ignored an order to move during the third night of violence in New York's Harlem. The demonstrations were touched off after an off-duty police officer shot and killed a 15-year-old Negro boy who was advancing on him with a knife.

Race Violence Continues in New York Area

By RICHARD F. WHALEN
Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The FBI is probing possible Communist influence in the city's racial violence, which continued throughout the night in Brooklyn's Negro section and resulted in the critical wounding of two Negroes by police.

Aging Mayor Paul R. Screvane said the Harlem disorders had been incited in part by fringe groups, including the Communist party.

He suggested that the FBI agents might investigate the source of money for some of the "very inflammatory...anti-American...and seditious statements."

The FBI investigation began on orders from President Johnson.

Meanwhile, Harlem, where rioting started Saturday night following protest rallies over the fatal shooting of a Negro boy by an off-duty police officer, was relatively quiet Tuesday night.

In Brooklyn's Bedford Stuyvesant section, police fired at looters. Dozens of store windows were broken.

About two dozen persons were arrested.

Mayor Robert F. Wagner cut short a European vacation because of the violence.

Wagner said he would look into the report of Communist influence. He said he did not believe federal troops or the National Guard would be needed to preserve order.

Police reported a number of the burglaries in Harlem, the big Negro neighborhood in Manhattan. A few shots were fired by police to disperse unruly crowds.

Two Shot, No Violence in Chicago Seen

CHICAGO (AP)—Two shootings in two days involving whites and Negroes have stirred Chicago. Police and Negro leaders, however, insisted today they expect no mob violence to break out.

The latest incident took place Monday night when a car filled with white youths sped through a predominantly Negro neighborhood on the South Side. Witnesses said one youth shot and wounded Loretta Nolan, 11, in the leg.

Despite the incidents, Negro leaders and police insist Chicago will never be another Harlem, where Negroes have been rioting in protest of the slaying of a 15-year-old boy by a New York City policeman.

After the Chicago shooting police sent three squads of Negro officers to the area to handle the report and assess the situation.

"We think it's a good idea to use Negro officers," said acting Sgt. Charles Jones. "That way we get the pulse of the people in the area."

Chuck Stone, editor of the Chicago Defender, largest Negro daily in the United States, said the situation is "potentially explosive."

"But with intelligent police handling and concern, I think we can forestall any full-scale racial rioting," he said.

Stone, who said he got to know Harlem while editing the weekly New York Age from 1958 to 1960, said "Negroes in Chicago don't have the serious mistrust of police as they do in Harlem."

"Here, O. W. Wilson, superintendent of police, has made a public stand in favor of racial integration and has been determined to provide more intelligent police handling of racial problems," Stone said.

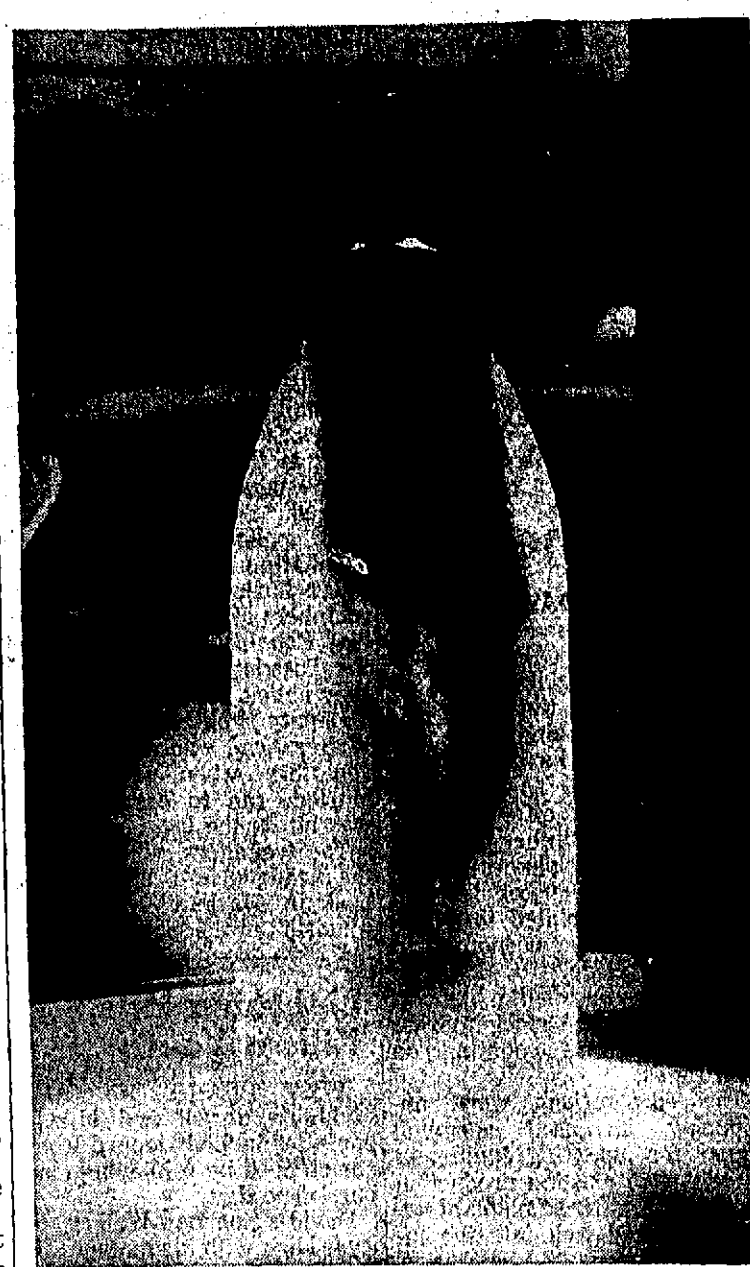

A high-ranking police official, who refused to be named, said "we feel that up to now we have been fortunate."

He agreed the department's policy of using Negro police in racial matters has helped avert outbreaks.

In the earlier shooting, police arrested Willie Saunders Sr., 53, and his son, Willie Jr., 34, and charged them with aggravated battery and assault.

The men claimed that the shooting victim, Richard Tarsa, 28, had doused them while sprinkling his lawn. Tarsa was shot in the groin.

The pickle, bottle and all weighed four pounds. How did it get in the bottle? L. R. Lambert of Sutton community, Nevada County, grew it inside the bottle. He pulled it July 11.

Hope Scouts Arrive at Jamboree

By Bill Coffee

Valley Forge State Park, Pa.—Several thousand tents dotted Valley Forge State Park when 40 Scouts and leaders from the Caddo Area Council Boy Scouts of America, arrived for the Sixth National Jamboree. Among these 40 were Bill Coffee, Monroe Pardue, Kennan Williams, Jimmy Turner, Jack Fountain, Mike Murphy, Terry Huffman, and Scoutmaster, Jerry O'Neal of Hope.

These locals are among 50,000 Scouts who opened the "Showcase of Scouting" on Friday, July 17, with the first official flag raising and the opening arena show in the evening, "Profiles in Heritage," with a cast of several thousand Scouts.

These boys have scheduled their activities for the week to include participation in field sports, a training visit to the conservation area, competition, and taking part in skill-o-rama demonstrations. Saturday July 18, included special events and activities for American Heritage Day. Out of one chance of 6,000, Troop 69 (the local boys troop) was selected to retire the colors for the entire Jamboree. The troop was selected by Jamboree Headquarters for this honor.

Provisions of Poverty Measure

WASHINGTON (AP)—Here are the major provisions of President Johnson's $625-million anti-poverty program legislation which the Senate takes up today.

—Unemployed youth programs, $12.5 million, a jobs corps to provide education, work experience and vocational training at conservation camps and job training centers; a work training program for youths in high school and a work-study program providing part-time jobs for needy college students.

—Community action programs, $340 million. This would provide authority to pay up to 90 per cent of the cost of community-wide action in health, welfare, job training, vocational rehabilitation, housing and basic education.

—Combating rural poverty, $50 million, including authority for grants of up to $1,500 for low-income rural families and loans of up to $2,500 to finance nonfarm enterprises and to establish housing, sanitation, education and child day-care programs for migrant farm workers.

—Work experience programs, $150 million, experimental and demonstration projects to encourage state programs for unemployed fathers.

Negroes Try to Integrate Fair Park Pool

Three Negro youths, all high school students, sought to integrate Hope's all white Municipal Swimming Pool at Fair Park yesterday afternoon but didn't press for permission following a talk with the City Manager.

Pool Manager Freddie Glaze, assistant coach, sent the boys to City Manager Garland Medders when they asked permission to go in swimming. They went willingly in a City Police car.

Manager Medders said today that "I discussed the racial trouble now raging in many areas and convinced them that now is the worst time to attempt integration of the swimming pool. I asked them to keep down trouble and let the racial situation develop peacefully."

"The boys were very polite and at no time displayed any sign of anger. In fact, I believe they were in full agreement and they indicated they certainly didn't want to be the cause of any disturbance," Mr. Medders said.

The City of Hope operates two municipal parks, one for white and one for Negroes. Both have swimming pools and full time supervision.

Crackdown Could Really Hurt Castro

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Organization of American States is expected to ask all non-Communist nations this week to join in a new crackdown on trade with Cuba.

Should the bid be even partially successful, Prime Minister Fidel Castro's creaky economy undoubtedly would suffer serious new damage through the denial of badly needed imports.

Cuba's railway system is reported to be in a crippling state of disrepair. Trucks and buses are urgently required to replace worn-out highway transport. People stand in long, slow-moving lines to buy food at the stores.

The price of gasoline, which Cuba reportedly gets only from Soviet sources, is up to 60 cents a gallon as against 34 cents a year ago. Production of sugar, Cuba's big export crop, is off more than 25 per cent.

In the judgment of Secretary of State Dean Rusk and some of the other Western Hemisphere foreign nations meeting here this week, the Castro regime is vulnerable on its economic front. To them it makes sense to seek to apply new pressures among the punitive measures proposed for adoption because of Castro's support of terrorist activities in Venezuela last year.

But the trend in Cuban trade with non-Communist countries is now upward, after declining for four years. Britain and France have broken with Washington's policy of economic boycott in order to sell transportation equipment. Other European allies may follow this lead.

The first question faced by the United States and other Western Hemisphere nations, therefore, is whether they can arrest this upward trend in Cuba's non-Communist trade and start it declining again.

The proposed new move to tighten the economic noose around the Castro regime would not mean any change in U.S. policy. This country has had a total embargo on trade with Cuba since February 1962 except for food and medicine.

The new proposal, however, would put an inter-American sanction behind what has been primarily a United States drive so far, and Washington officials believe this could have one practical result. It could cause Latin-American buyers to boycott the products of European countries trading with Cuba.

And since they need to buy many of the same things that the Cubans require, those companies interested in Cuban trade might be faced with the loss of markets more important than those they could gain by opening up commerce with Cuba.

More Spent on Road Than for Education

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas spends more on highway than on education a U.S. Commerce Department report showed Tuesday.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus, questioned about the report, said it was true. He said the cost of building road in Arkansas is unusually high because of the state's topography.

In mountainous areas, Faubus said, it is extremely expensive to build and maintain roads. In the flat land of East Arkansas, materials have to be hauled a long way, he said.

"Over in Eastern Arkansas you can't even find a rock to throw at a squirrel," he said.

The Commerce Department report showed that Arkansas spends $48.63 per person each year for education, which is $13.81 below the national average.

Speaker Is 80, Wants Re-election

BOSTON (AP)—House Speaker John W. McCormack, 80, Mass., who is 72, and former Speaker Joseph W. Martin, R. Mass., who will be 80 in November, face re-election challenges.

Noel A. Day, a Negro civil rights leader, filed Tuesday as an independent candidate for McCormack's seat, and said he was challenging "the entrenched political power in Congress for its failure to deal creatively with the problems of poverty."

Former State Rep. William F. Nourse of Medfield, seeking to wrest the Republican nomination from Martin, said the "time requires a more energetic course than a 79-year-old political veteran can follow."

McCormack, next in line for the presidency, is completing his 19th consecutive term. Martin has represented his district for 20 consecutive terms since 1925.

Racial Strife Adds to Woes of Business

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Political turmoil and racial strife are being added to the uncertainties of business planning.

Businessmen have to plan ahead—or else. This summer had seemed to offer far less than the usual number of uncertainties. As the planners took to the woods or the beaches, all the signs still pointed to a further climb in the economy—and the signs still do.

The bellwethers—the big corporations and the stock market—obviously were counting on good times.

The corporations were announcing increased spending plans, for updating equipment or adding to existing production facilities. And these plans of necessity looked well into the future.

The stock market has been betting on the nearer term. Prices, especially of many blue chips, have been bid to record highs. The meaning seemed clear—the big investors, individual or institutional, expected increased earnings in the future, and maybe dividends, and certainly higher market values for outstanding shares.

Regular uncertainties that plague the planners were still there, of course. International strife could always upset any predictions. Natural catastrophes such as weather or earthquakes could hit some industries or regions. The always unpredictable consumer could change from his present state of calm confidence to one of doubt and then consumer spending age. The state spends $53.18 per person for highway construction and maintenance, the report said. This is $6.09 more than the national average.

Faubus said that in the next few years "our main emphasis in Arkansas must be on education because it is the key for all other progress."

"I don't think the quality of education is suffering in Arkansas because of the low teachers' salaries," Faubus said. "Even if we raise a teacher another $1,000 a year, it is not going to make her a better teacher. But we need to give them money because they deserve it."

Education leaders argue that higher pay would attract better teachers and would keep the best teachers in Arkansas.

Race Violence

gatherings. But there were no large crowds, demonstrations or anything like the weekend rioting in which one man was killed and more than 100 injured.

In Brooklyn, the trouble started after a Black Nationalist street rally that drew about 500 Negroes. Firecrackers exploded in the crowd and many people scattered in panic.

More than 200 police moved in to quell the disturbance. They fired more than 150 shots in the air. Bottles were thrown. Store windows were broken. Subways were ordered to skip the Franklin and Nostrand street stops for a time.

The crowd broke up after an hour or two and police began getting reports of looting throughout the section.

About 24 Negroes were taken into custody. A police sergeant said Summer Avenue was "all torn up" with many store windows broken.

Small crowds gathered at stores where burglar alarms rang in the night. They cursed police whenever patrolmen appeared.

At police headquarters in Manhattan about 250 white teenagers hurled rotten eggs at 16 members of the Congress of Racial Equality, who were picketing Tuesday night against what they called police brutality.

Deputy Police Commissioner Walter Arm, who was talking to reporters when the barrage started, ran to escape it, but was hit on the leg.

The teenagers, who live near the headquarters, shouted, "Go back to Harlem" and "Communists" at the pickets.

Lightning Hits, Kills a Youth

WEST PLAINS, Mo. (AP)—Lightning struck and killed a boy after he had stepped from a car stopped by a blinding cloud-burst Tuesday.

David Eugene Walker, 12, was riding with his mother, Mrs. Ralph Walker, his grandmother and two brothers and a sister. All were treated for shock.

Mrs. Walker had stopped the car because of the storm on U.S. 160 east of West Plains. David stepped outside and the bolt struck him.

would fall, and so would business sales and earnings. And the aging business upturn could run afoul of the traditional cycle, if any excesses should develop to trigger a downturn.

But the economic signs on the whole were, and are, remarkably near unanimity in predicting continuing good times.

For many business planners, however, there are now some new uncertainties to deal with.

What could racial strife do to production in some localities, to consumer buying here and there, to the choice of localities for new plants? Rioting can mean property damages and loss of goods. It can also frighten away shoppers, or even keep factory workers away from their jobs. Some tourists are reported nervous. Travel to some trouble spots has dropped.

Racial strife goes even deeper than these surface matters. Top management in many corporations is taking a new look at hiring plans, at advertising campaigns, at moves to enter new markets. Management-labor relations are affected in a number of industries.

A summer that looked like an economic shoe-in might yet develop some business fireworks unforeseen only a short time back.

Not Too Sure Faubus Will Be His Foe

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Winthrop Rockefeller said Tuesday that he was not positive that Gov. Orval E. Faubus would be his Democratic opponent in the November election.

And, if Faubus does win next Tuesday's Democratic primary, the governor's bid for a sixth straight term will be the No. 1 issue, Rockefeller said.

Faubus indicated in a television speech Monday night that civil rights is likely to be a major campaign issue.

Rockefeller, however, said he could not see how civil rights could be a top issue.

"I don't see where my position is much different from his (Faubus'), although we may use different words," Rockefeller said.

"I have said repeatedly that the solution to the racial problem should be at the grass roots level," the Republican candidate for governor said. "I'd like to see the state move ahead as it has in certain other areas."

Rockefeller indicated that he would respect the new civil rights law if he is elected governor.

"I've always maintained that law enforcement was first and foremost," Rockefeller said.

Many of the questions at Rockefeller's news conference—his first in the state since he opened campaign headquarters June 27—centered around the GOP convention in San Francisco last week.

Rockefeller said his first obligation must be to his own campaign for governor, but he said he would work with and for Sen. Barry Goldwater, the Republican presidential nominee.

"I expect to ride with him to victory in November," he said.

Faubus, Rockefeller said, "would love to get on the Goldwater bandwagon."

Rockefeller said he withdrew as a favorite son candidate for president at the convention because "I didn't see any reason for opening the door to let Faubus take advantage of the confusion and to get on the (Goldwater) bandwagon."

Faubus clearly was talking about Rockefeller in his television speech Monday night, and apparently gave no thought to his three opponents in Tuesday's election—Joe Hubbard of Russellville, Odell Dorsey of Sheridan and R. D. Burrow of Walnut Ridge.

Rockefeller said he had talked with many persons who praised the Faubus administration, but "they don't feel they have elected him for life."

He said he is putting together the kind of grass roots organization which will be effective in the campaign, and he expects disgruntled Democrats to help him if Faubus wins the Demo-

Pennsylvania's Gov. William W. Scranton, the familiar figure of this year, and past years, seem washed out: Nixon, Rockefeller, Lodge.

Scranton at the end was Goldwater's only active rival for the Republican presidential nomination. He didn't make a glittering race of it.

Even allowing for his late start, much of his effort seemed wishy-washy, and his campaign badly organized. But he is only 47. The presidential bug could bite him again although it took some biting this time to get him started.

Besides Goldwater and Scranton only Nixon, Rockefeller and Lodge seemed to have even a remote chance for the nomination. All were figures from the past.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon is only 51, which would seem to give him time for another try or two, except for what happened to him.

Although he lost the presidency to Sen. John F. Kennedy in 1960, it was so close he might have been in a favorite spot for the No. 1 role again if he hadn't failed in a try for the governorship of California in 1962. His balloon went down.

A close loss of the presidency is one thing. But to lose the gubernatorial contest could be a fatal blow.

He probably didn't endear himself to Scranton or Goldwater. He called the former a puppet and tried to stir up opposition to Goldwater. The senator said he sounded "more and more like Harold Stassen."

New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, 56, will be 60 when the 1968 election comes. But after what happened to him this year 1968 will probably be just a date on the calendar.

He was the one sturdy Republican who fought Goldwater through the primaries, campaigning hard. He beat the senator in Oregon, lost to him in California, and then dropped out when Goldwater's strength seemed too much.

This was his second frustration and second withdrawal. He made sounds like a candidate in 1960 but Nixon had such an inside track for the nomination that Rockefeller pulled out without even trying.

If nothing else, age alone would knock Henry Cabot Lodge out of the picture next time. He is 62 now, will be 66 then. He was very unimpressive this year, except for a short time after he won the New Hampshire primary over Goldwater and Rockefeller.

Lodge won there without declaring himself a candidate and while he was still U.S. ambassador in far-off South Viet Nam. When Rockefeller beat him in the Oregon primary, that finished him.

He quit as ambassador to come home, he said, to help Scranton beat Goldwater. But he wasn't very dynamic after he got here. If he thought the lightning might strike him, he was probably the only one who die.

Yet, at the moment, there is no one in sight who could reasonably be said to be the man to replace these familiar figures from the past.

Boy's genuine marbles, made of stone from Bavarian quarries were once manufactured in enormous quantities. Sixty such mills still existed at the end of the 19th Century.

The first macadam highway in the United States was built between 1791 and 1797. It ran from Philadelphia to Lancaster, Pa.

At the last primary election there were more than 1,000 votes cast in Ward 1. The law authorizes the Democratic Central Committee to provide additional precinct where more than 100 votes are cast in a precinct (Section 3-232 A.S.A.)

There were more than 500 votes cast in Ward 4, at the last primary election.

Hence, with the new precincts, the election officials will be able to count the votes and make their returns much earlier than they have been able to do in the past.

It is very important that the voters cast their ballot at the precinct in the area where they reside. To be a legal ballot the voter must cast his ballot in the precinct where he resides.

Lines Up Against Assessment Hike

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus lined up Tuesday against an Arkansas Education Association proposal to increase the minimum property assessment ratio to 2 per cent.

Faubus said the equalization program is working well and "we should look at it very carefully before considering any changes."

The 1955 equalization law, amended in 1959, requires a 20 per cent assessment ratio, but provides no penalty if assessments reach a level of 18 per cent of actual value.

The AEA wants the penalty level set at 20 per cent.

"DEAR ABBY"

NO CHANCE FOR CHANGE!

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: My husband's "baby" sister (some baby, she is 44!) is getting married again for the fourth time. She lost one husband at Pearl Harbor and two in the divorce court. She is planning a big church wedding. Her excuse is that Calvin (her fiancé) has never been married before and HE deserves a lovely wedding. The truth of the matter is that all of hers were hurry-up affairs and SHE wants a lovely wedding. Besides, Calvin's people resent his marrying a divorcee and I hear they aren't even coming to the wedding. And you can just imagine how all our relatives feel about having to buy a FOURTH wedding present for the same person! How can I stop her? She doesn't listen to anybody.

SISTER-IN-LAW
Dear Sis: If she doesn't listen to anybody, she is not about to listen to me. Stop wasting your energy. She is three times seven (doubled) and doesn't want your advice or mine.

Dear Abby: Please don't think I'm crazy, but you are the only person I can ask. Is overweight hereditary? I am going with a girl who is a little on the heavy side. Her mother is so fat she has to go through the door sideways. And her grandmother is so enormous she has to be helped out of chairs. I like this girl very much, Abby, and the thought of marriage has crossed my mind, but if she is going to turn out like her mother and grandmother, I don't know how happy I would be with her later on. What do you think?

SECOND THOUGHTS
Dear Second: "Overweight" is not hereditary. But the tendency toward obesity is. Perhaps a thyroid deficiency or disorder runs in your girl's family. If you are considering marriage, you have a right to ask.

Dear Abby: I am a single woman keeping company with a man who is separated from his wife, but not divorced. He has three children to support so he never has money. He seldom takes me out, but he goes into a rage if I accept an invitation to go out with someone else.

Three of whom live at home, said Furlough and his wife had argued about turning off the television set.

Wedding Vows Are Repeated

Mrs. Charles Blackwood

Miss Sherry Lynn Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Davis of Lubbock, Texas, became the bride of Charles Blackwood, son of Mrs. Maggie Blackwood of Hope.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by W. R. Burks, Methodist minister, July 18 at 7:30 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Cummings of Patmos. The home was decorated with gladioli.

The bride pledged her vows in a street length gown of white lace over taffeta. She carried a camellia bouquet on top of a white Bible.

Her maid of honor and only attendant was her sister, Danielle Davis of Lubbock. Her dress was a blue crepe street length and she carried a corsage of gardenias.

Jim Blackwood served his brother as best man.

A reception followed the ceremony in the Cummings home. The couple will make their home in Hope. The groom is employed in Arkadelphia at Safeway as Produce Manager. The bride is a graduate of Lubbock High School and the groom is a 1959 graduate of Hope High School.

Bill Tucker has gone unshorn for 15 years. His mane hangs white and stringy below his shoulders, his mustache is wide and luxuriant and his goatee is longer than a billygoat's.

He presents an imposing figure as he strides down Hollywood Boulevard daily in Western-style tan gabardine suit, yellow silk shirt, black cowboy boots and Stetson hat. He resembles everyone's conception of Buffalo Bill, yet for Col. Cody he has scant regard.

"Talked to him once in San Francisco at the World's Fair," said Wild Bill. "He was all right. Drank a lot in his later years. He was a good politician. I'll say that for him."

He was standing on a corner as a bus disgorged some travelers. He greeted several of them and they said, "Hello, Bill," and continued on their way. He resumed talking in his rambling, non-stop manner.

They like to talk to me.

"It makes me feel good to be around people. I'm 72 years old and I never felt better in my life. That's because I like people and I take care of myself. I eat good, sleep good and get loads of exercise."

He demonstrated some of his calisthenics. One consisted of flexing his arms and moving them rapidly from side to side. Another he admitted was nothing more or less than the shimmy—"It's great for getting the blood to the brain and other vital organs."

He was born John William Tucker in Beatrice, Neb., where, he noted, Wild Bill Hickok shot it out with the McCandless. Bill's father was a frontier judge who was born in the same Missouri county where Daniel Boone died.

Bill got into show business in 1912 as an imitator and whistler. He was called "The Great Bill" and a pretty lousy act, as he recalled it. After war service as an air instructor, he followed a number of occupations in and around the entertainment world. Among them: imitating sounds for movie cartoons.

"I can make any sound you name; here's a hurricane," he said.

"Shucks, I wasn't no movie star or anything like that," he remarked. "But I can make more money now than I ever did before. Don't want to work, though. I got my A-m-y pension and my Social Security. That's all I need."

Cancels Election Eve Broadcast

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus said Tuesday he has cancelled plans for an election eve statewide television campaign speech because "I'm going to need some money later on."

"I never did think election eve broadcasts were effective," he said.

Faubus said he might change his mind if some questions develop in the people's mind between now and next Tuesday's Democratic primary.

If Faubus wins the primary, he will face Republican Winthrop Rockefeller in the general election Nov. 3.

Two Injured in Plane Crash

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Mrs. Delmar Hanneman, 30, of Lonoke, was in poor condition in a Little Rock hospital today and her 8-year-old daughter, Jolene, was in fair condition. They were injured in the crash of Mrs. Hanneman's light plane Tuesday.

Mrs. Hanneman's husband helped pull his wife and daughter from the wreckage after Mrs. Hanneman tried to land, pulled up, and struck a tree. The plane crashed into a dry bayou and caught fire.

She was trying to land on the couple's private airstrip. They operate a crop dusting service. Mrs. Hanneman was returning from a visit with her parents in Kansas.

Clutch Hit Brings Travs a Victory

DENVER (AP) — Arkansas' clutch hitting arrived in the nick of time again and the Travelers squeezed out a 3-2 baseball decision over Denver here Tuesday night.

The triumph gave Arkansas a 20 lead in the three-game Pacific Coast League series here. It kept the Travelers five games in front in the Eastern Division.

Pat Corrales, whose homer in the seventh shattered Phil Niekro's bid for a shutout, delivered the big blow in the two-run ninth.

Adolpho Phillips cracked a high pitch into the left field corner for a double in the ninth. Corrales followed with another double, scoring Phillips to tie the score 2-2.

Pitcher Billy Smith ran for Corrales, and scored on Bill Heath's pinch single to left.

Sandy Alomar's 15th triple of the season scored Purnell Goldy and Ernie Bowman, who had singled, in the second inning for the Bears' runs.

U.S. Internal Differences in Campaign

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst WASHINGTON (AP) — This year's election campaign—including the candidates and the issues—reflects the peculiar mood in which Americans are living. There has been nothing like it for 35 years.

If this was a time of crisis or peril for the United States, the energies and even the hostilities of Americans would be directed not inward among themselves but outward toward the common, foreign foe.

Internal differences would be submerged.

Even if this was a time of depression there would be a common cry and search for new solutions and new programs to save the nation from disaster. The people would be wrapped in a common garment of uncertainty.

But this is not that kind of time. Compared with years gone by this is a prosperous and tranquil period. Because it is, Americans now have the luxury of time for self-examination, self-criticism and internal hostilities.

There has been no such time since before the 1929 market crash. Then came the years of depression, despair and fright, the new programs of President Franklin D. Roosevelt and the gratitude for his leadership as expressed in the 1936 election which gave him every state but two.

Before the depression was over, and before Roosevelt's third election, the United States had moved into the anxiety and the preparations of the years just before World War II. Then there were the war years.

After them—the years of re-conversion to peace, the stunning realization that the nation had only moved from a hot war to a cold one, the repeated crises created by communism, the Marshall Plan, the Berlin blockade, the Communist take-over in China, the formation of NATO, the Korean war, the nuclear race with the Soviet Union and the agony of internal suspicion in the McCarthy era.

The years that follow, the years of President Dwight D. Eisenhower, were not tranquil. These were the years of the missile race, of the probrings of Nikita Khrushchev, of new nations emerging. All of them were uneasy years.

They did not become easier when President John F. Kennedy took over. Khrushchev tried him out, too, with the Berlin wall, nuclear testing, missiles in Cuba. It was only after Kennedy forced a showdown with him in Cuba that some tranquility be-

This coincided with the disintegration of unity in the Communist world. The Reds turned their energies and hostilities inward, criticizing one another. It was then that a comparatively peaceful period for this country began.

True, there is still Castro's communism in Cuba and the war in Viet Nam is going anything but well. But neither directly menaces the safety of the United States, which at last is beginning to feel secure behind an armed strength greater than anything the Communist world can muster.

Now, with crisis absent and tension eased and the country fairly prosperous, Americans have more time to examine themselves, criticize themselves, express their discontent with themselves.

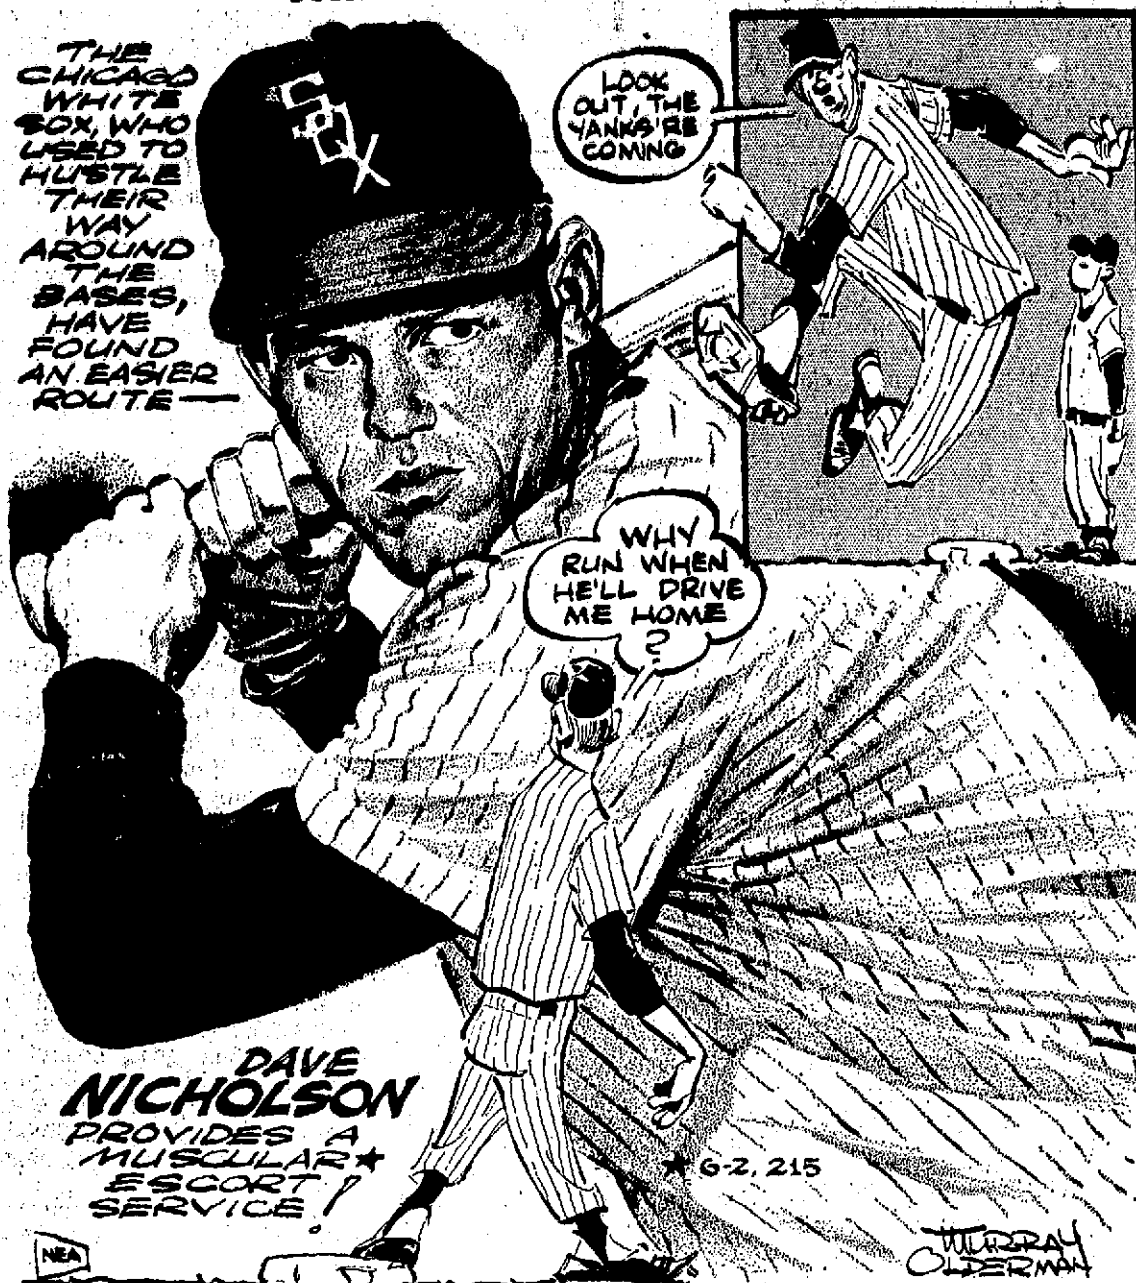

President Johnson in a very real sense is the custodian of the programs, at home and abroad, built up since 1929 and he is intent on adding new ones, particularly in the social welfare field.

Sen. Barry Goldwater, the Republican nominee, represents the forces which have long been discontented with those programs, particularly the enormously enlarged role of the federal government in life of the nation over these past 35 years.

Much of the campaign may be concentrated in that area.

But it is only because the country is now rich, and at last tranquil, if only temporarily, that those who share and oppose

Williams Hits Homer, Cubs Defeat Giants

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

Billy Williams hit a two-strike pitch for a two-run homer that provided the Chicago Cubs with the runs they needed to whip San Francisco 2-1 Tuesday night.

Williams' homer, his 23rd, made the Cubs the latest entry in the National League pennant sweepstakes as they climbed over the .500 level with their fourth straight victory and eighth in 10 games, moving into contending position 7½ games off the pace.

The Giants, meanwhile, continued their skid, losing their seventh in the last nine games and falling a full game behind front-running Philadelphia. The Phillies, also struggling, defeated Milwaukee 6-3 for only their fifth victory in the last 14 games.

Elsewhere, the New York Mets dropped third-place Cincinnati 3½ games by beating the Reds 4-2, Pittsburgh rode Jerry Lynch's grand slam homer to an 8-4 victory over St. Louis and Houston edged the Los Angeles Dodgers 1-0 on Al Spangler's homer.

The New York Yankees took over the American League lead by walloping Washington 7-1 while Cleveland swept Baltimore 4-2 and 85 and the Los Angeles Angels took two from the Chicago White Sox, 20 and 32. Kansas City edged Minnesota 5-4 and Boston belted Detroit 7-5.

The Cubs struck in the fourth against Gaylord Perry, now 77, when former Giant Joe Amalfitano double and Williams followed with his homer. That gave Bob Buhl his 12th victory against five losses although he needed relief help from Bobby Shantz and Don Elston.

The Giants scored in the sixth when Hal Lanier tripled and came home on a wild pitch by Buhl, but Elston cut off their last threat, getting Jim Davenport and Chuck Hiller on soft flies with the bases loaded in the ninth.

Bobby Wine, drive in two runs with a homer and single, Tony Taylor also homered and rookie Richie Allen stroked three hits as the Phillies slowed the Braves, who had won eight of 10 and 16 of their last 22.

Art Mahaffey, 9-4, started for Philadelphia but needed Jack Baldschun's relief help when the Braves loaded the bases with one out in eighth and the Phillies leading only 4-2. Bald-

The Mets made it four straight victories over the Red Sox, 6-0, Larry Elito hit a bases-empty homer off Joey Jay, 4-8, in the second and walked before fourth.

The victory went to Bill Wakefield, who pitched 5-1-3 innings of two-hit relief after the Reds chased racy Stallard with two fourth inning runs on a pair of walks and singles by Deron Johnson and Gordy Coleman.

Lynch smashed his grand slam off Ron Taylor in a five run fifth inning that gave the Pirates more than enough to beat the Cardinals. Taylor took over for starter and loser Ray Sadecki, 10-8, after rain delayed the game 81 minutes.

Joe Gibbon, 7-3, needed relief help to win it after Mike Shannon hit a three-run homer for the Cardinals in the eighth.

Spangler's leadoff homer in the eighth broke up a pitchers' duel between the Colts' Bob Bruce and Don Drysdale of the Dodgers.

Bruce kept nine hits well spaced and stranded four Dodgers on third base as he brought his record to 11-4 with his fourth straight victory. Drysdale, 12-9, allowed only five hits.

Orioles Drop Pair, Yanks Go Into Lead

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer

The New York Yankees trimmed Washington 7-1 Tuesday night.

Then they wound up on top of the American League when John Romano powered Cleveland to a 4-2, 8-5 doubleheader sweep over Baltimore and Vic Power came through with the big hit in the Los Angeles Angels' 2-0, 3-2 sweep over the Chicago White Sox.

Romano, a catcher the first game, was in the outfield when his third homer of the evening triggered an eight-run Indian uprising in the eighth inning of the Cleveland-Baltimore nightcap.

The big inning sent the Orioles reeling into second place, five percentage points behind New York.

Power was back at first base in the White Sox-Angels second game after an enforced 10-day layoff—the result of a run-in with umpire Jim Honochick in Los Angeles.

He came up in the seventh inning with two outs and cracked a basesloaded single off Gary Peters that brought the Angels from behind and pushed the Sox into third place, one half game off the pace.

Boston defeated Detroit 7-5 on Dick Stuart's three-run homer and Kansas City nipped Minnesota 5-0 on Rocky Colavito's two-run double in other AL games.

In the National League, Chicago edged San Francisco 2-1; Philadelphia beat Milwaukee 6-3; Houston shaded Los Angeles 1-0; Pittsburgh downed St. Louis 8-4 and New York stunned Cincinnati 4-2.

Tom Tresh homered twice and doubled for the Yankees and Jim Bouton won his ninth game in 17 decisions with a four-hitter.

10 YEARS OF FAUBUS

Ten years ago Arkansas put a man and a plan into action. Today Governor Faubus and his programs of progress have advanced Arkansas in every area that state government influences.

For instance . . .

- More than 90,000 new jobs have been announced by new and expanding industries.
- Arkansas leads the nation in percentage of increase in per capita income.
- The average weekly wage for Arkansas' working people has increased 38%—from $51.68 in 1954 to $71.42 in 1963.
- Arkansas' total payroll for private industry and business has increased $540,501,000 — from $618,616,000 in 1954 to $1,159,117,000 in 1963.
- Average weekly manufacturing wages have increased from $51.33 in 1954 to $75.80 in 1963—a 50% increase.
- School construction has broken all existing records.
- More than 4,500 miles of roads—both rural and urban—have been hard-surfaced.
- Average teacher salaries have increased from $2,284 in 1954 to $4,012 in 1963.
- Multi-million dollar projects — especially at the State Hospital in Little Rock and the Children's Colony in Conway—are bringing the best medical care available to Arkansas citizens.
- State aid to public schools and colleges has more than doubled — from $29,310,577 in 1954 to $63,000,000 in 1963.
- Tourist trade has boomed; state parks have increased in number from 7 to 22.

A Short Short Story

MY DEAR MISS HICKLEWATH

By Rose Michalewicz
Miss Daphne Hicklewath
Chicago, Ill.

I hope you will note that this is not another form letter but rather, a personal request for your cooperation in supplying me with information.

You have received a number of form letters over the past five months requesting payment of $6.30 for your 1963 Universal Book Of The Year. However, my purpose in writing you is NOT to ask you to pay for your year book, but rather to ask you why you haven't paid.

It appears that it is not a question of being unable to pay - for obviously the amount is very small - but rather of being UNWILLING to pay. This surprises me, for we know from experience that the type of person who buys a set of Universal does not default on debts of this type.

I am sure that you feel you have good reason for withholding payment. If so, perhaps there is something we at Universal are overlooking and it would help us greatly if you would bring it to our attention. This is why I am personally writing to you.

You may be assured that I will take a personal interest in what you have to say and will very much appreciate hearing from you.

Sincerely,
Melvin Braxton, Asst. Credit Manager
Universal Encyclopedia

Dear Mr. Braxton:

I am sorry that I have let you people down. I guess I'm not the type of person who should be permitted to own the Universal Encyclopedia.

Obviously, the type of person who buys the Universal is a member of the elite. So special, that the sum of $6.30 is a mere pittance. Well, let me fill you in on the facts. Buster - $6.30 is not a piddling sum to me, and never has been.

But of course you would not accept this as a good reason for not paying. Or would you? It would not be good business because everyone would be encouraged to buy what they can't afford.

Sure, I own a Universal Encyclopedia. It was the dream of my lifetime; it represented the college education I was never able to have. I even went without lunches and nylons to have enough for the down payment. I ordered the 1963 Year Book, because things looked pretty good. How did I know that I was going to get sick and lose my job and have the bills piling up. I'm not sorry that I have the Year Book. I must have looked through it a thousand times while I was sick.

Anyway, I didn't mean to bore you with all these details; only I have been lonely and your letter did seem a little bit friendly.

Faithfully Yours,
Daphne Hicklewath

My Dear Miss Hicklewath:

It grieves me to hear that one of our loyal subscribers has been ill. I disagree with you. You are obviously a person of the caliber who not only should be allowed to have a set of the Universal, but your reverence for the knowledge it contains should be publicized, so as to encourage other people. If you will allow us to reprint portions of your letter in our brochures, we will be glad to write off the $6.30 as

Ministers Meet, Exiles Riot Briefly

By ARY MOLEON

WASHINGTON (AP) - Urged on by a march of Cuban exiles, some of whom rioted briefly Tuesday, foreign ministers of Western Hemisphere nations considered today what steps to take against Cuban aggression.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk, pushing the United States request for action, was among well as a gift you with a free copy of the 1964 Book of the Year, which I will undertake to deliver personally this coming Saturday night. You will note, if you check your Universal Calendar, that this is the night of the Chinese New Year.

Cordially yours,
Melvin Braxton

Dear Bette:

I want to thank you for the loan of your Hong Kong Lounging Palamas as well as for your recipe of Chicken Moo Goo Guy Pan. I made Melvin Braxton an authentic Chinese supper when he came to present me with the 1964 Book of the Year. Well, we spent a very instructive evening in the Universal Encyclopedia. It really is a very absorbing topic and I guess Melvin stayed pretty late. It was a little difficult reading by the light of the Japanese lanterns: you loaned me, but the pictures were nice and clear.

Since you are my closest friend, I'll let you in on a little secret. When I opened my fortune cookie, it said, "You will meet a man who will alter the course of your life." Melvin put his hands over mine and said, "Just how smart can a fortune cookie get?" Anyway, I guess that a mutual interest in things of an Oriental nature is as good a basis for marriage as any.

Don't worry. I'll pitch my bridal bouquet directly at you; after all you were the one who told me about that adorable, eligible fellow in charge of Delinquent Accounts at your office.

Gratefully,
Daph.

A clash of several hundred Cubans with hastily summoned police marked what had started out as a peaceful demonstration by more than 5,000 Cuban exiles who came here to urge action against the Castro regime.

More than 400 metropolitan and park policemen, some on horseback and motorcycles, helped quell the disturbance which broke out when some of the marchers insisted on leaving the parade route to head to the Pan American Union building where the foreign ministers are meeting.

Two Cubans and a park policeman received hospital treatment and about 45 other Cubans were treated for cuts, bruises, exhaustion and heat prostration.

Three men and one woman arrested on disorderly conduct posting collateral.

In Miami, organizers of the march charged that "Castro people" infiltrated their ranks and were responsible for the trouble.

The parade had been organized to march from the Washington Monument to the Lincoln Memorial and back to support the cause of sanctions against Cuba. Some insisted on going on toward the meeting site.

Mounted policemen rode slowly into the crowd, forcing those in front back against others following. Many fell to the ground in the crush.

Aided by leaders of the march, police soon restored order and the crowds melted away.

Most of the demonstrators had appeared in a happy mood as they carried signs "Cuba si, Russia no," and "We

Withdrawal Sure to Help Goldwater

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Alabama's segregationist governor, George C. Wallace, is no novice in hopping from position to position. He has hopped again, this time in announcing his withdrawal as an independent candidate for president.

This will almost certainly benefit Sen. Barry Goldwater, the Republican presidential candidate, who has said no Republican could hope to win this year's election without the South.

Goldwater, who voted against this year's civil rights bill, was expected to cut into President Johnson's Southern margin by capturing a lot of the segregationists' votes. But Wallace would have won a lot of them, too, if he ran.

By running, Wallace would probably have hurt Goldwater more than Johnson. Wallace didn't say Sunday which candidate he will back. He indicated he would say more after next month's democratic convention.

Wallace did say he would support whichever major party candidate proved to be the more conservative and zealous in upholding the principles of free enterprise, local government and state's rights. It's Goldwater who has made a career of championing all those points.

It seems hardly a coincidence, therefore, that Wallace stepped out of the race just four days after Goldwater got the Republican nomination.

His present reluctance to name his choice can be interpreted as an attempt to pressure the Democrats into toning down the civil rights plank in the platform they will together at the convention, since he's a leader of the anti-civil rights forces and the Southern vote is important.

The Republican civil rights plank is surely milder than anything the Democrats are likely to produce if only because it was their Democratic-run Congress under Johnson's pressure which passed the new Civil Rights Act this month.

Even some Republicans thought their plank didn't go far enough, but their attempts to strengthen it were crushed by the Goldwater forces.

Wallace surprised politicians earlier this year with the votes he ran up in Democratic presidential primaries in Maryland, Indiana and Wisconsin. He zig-zagged on what he was going to do.

At one time he said he wouldn't be a presidential candidate. Then he came around to saying he would be a serious one. Now he has changed again.

Asked Sunday if he would enforce the new civil rights law, he replied that was for the federal government to do, although, he said, he never encouraged disobedience or defiance of any law. He forgot about 1963.

Last year when a federal court ordered desegregation of the University of Alabama and the admittance of two Negroes, Wallace said he would bar their entrance himself, adding: "This is legal resistance and legal defiance."

He barred the door and the late President John F. Kennedy had to federalize the Alabama National Guard before Wallace would step aside. Then he trotted away.

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Next week Rose Marie plays a real life Pagliacci.

A wise-cracking comedienne, she plays the single girl who is always looking for a man on "The Dick Van Dyke Show." The show took a summer vacation and resumes filming July 30.

HERO WORSHIP—When Kelso, four-times Horse of the Year, passes, everyone stops and watches, including children and their dogs.

EMERGENCY USE—West German traffic warden checks the first blood-plasma depot which has been installed on the Munich-Salzburg Autobahn. The plasma will be available for on-the-spot transfusions to victims of traffic accidents, if the need arises. The plasma can be stored for up to five years.

Marie lost her husband of 18 years. He died suddenly from a blood ailment.

Her husband, trumpeter Bobby Guy, was the comics' favorite musician. A hearty, sincere laughter, he was always in the band when Jerry Lewis, Danny Kaye, George Gobel or any of the other big name comics appeared.

He also was a good trumpeter—once featured with the Key Kyser band in the Thirties.

Rose Marie, a former stage and movie child star, has been in show business all her life but never wound up with the adult problems of most child performers.

"Somehow, I never felt as if I were different than other kids," she says. "I thank my mother for that. Maybe that's why Bobby and I had such a happy marriage."

"We had 18 wonderful years together—and a wonderful daughter who is the image of her father. And she is so much like him in many ways, it is the one solace I have."

"That and all the wonderful letters from people I never even knew existed. Lots of them from friends of Bobby—friends I never knew he had."

Bobby loved comics. But his favorite was his wife. Gobel once quipped: "Bobby is such a fan of Rose Marie that he's the only husband in town who asks his wife for an autograph at breakfast."

Asked how she felt about re-summing her comedy career, Rose Marie did not go into the spiel about "the show must go on."

"I dread it," she said sadly.

Indochina Remains a Key Issue

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

Ten years ago today France reluctantly signed a Geneva accord cutting Viet Nam in half. The Communist North is using the anniversary to steam up a drive apparently aimed at forcing the Indochina question once again to a Geneva conference table.

The anniversary finds South Viet Nam in military and political trouble and the Communist North struggling with harsh economic woes. But the Communists, tutored by the Red Chinese, also appear to see an advantage to be seized from the presidential election campaign in the United States.

A Communist propaganda campaign keyed to the anniversary seems to herald a significantly increased Red effort to make things hot for the Americans and the South Viet Nam regime of Premier Nguyen Khanh. The idea seems to be that however the Americans pressure for negotiation or by carrying the war to North Viet Nam—the impact will be felt in the U.S. elections and add to U.S. confusion.

The North Vietnamese are being exhorted to mark the anniversary with greater labor efforts. To celebrate the date, the Northerners have been dragged into a "one man labor as to" campaign to step up production, principally of food.

The Northerners have been told that only increased production can promise an end to austerity and the guerrilla war in the South. The North always has depended on the fertile South to make up a rice deficit, and today's cry for reunification of Viet Nam has special meaning in Hanoi in the North.

Therefore, the pressure in Indochina promises to increase sharply. The Southern regime claims regular North Vietnamese forces have moved into South Viet Nam Border provinces to fight alongside guerrilla units of Communist Viet Cong.

In Laos, the Communists seem intent on stepping up the pressure on the U.S.-supported neutralist government.

All this might point to an attempt to seek a showdown at a time during an election campaign—which is awkward for the United States.

A presidential background to all this is for a new 14-nation Geneva conference. The Red Chinese would like to see South Viet Nam neutralized and the Americans out, though it is unlikely the Communists' ever would agree to neutralize North Viet Nam.

Ten years ago, France threw in the towel in Indochina. Now President Charles de Gaulle's government wants the Geneva conference reconvened to consider a guaranteed neutrality for all Indochina—Laos, Cambodia and the Viet Nams. De Gaulle contends any lasting settlement must take into consideration the incontrovertible fact of massive China and her interests.

France achieved a settlement 10 years ago by agreeing to talk with her adversaries in Indochina. But the Communists had left hordes of their own cadres in South Viet Nam. The settlement lasted only until they were ready to mount an offensive to Theoretically, Viet Nam was only temporarily divided at the 17th Parallel. There were to be elections eventually to unify the nation. Laos was to be sovereign, with the Communist Pathet Lao retaining pockets near the North Viet Nam border temporarily, pending a Laotian national coalition.

Washington contends few of the provisions were observed and that thus a new Geneva conference would be pointless.

take the whole country. unless it could produce an ironclad guarantee that the Communists would leave their neighbors in peace.

If the Communists feel this is an opportune moment, one can expect a burgeoning offensive which could face Washington with an embarrassing election-year dilemma. Counter-measures which could spread the war or agreement to a new conference.
